

Our First Appointment.

This is where we meet and have a friendly discussion about what you want for your wedding ceremony. Our first appointment will be around one hour.

We start the legal work by filling in the Notice Of Intended Marriage form

(Provided by me) At that point I would need to see both your original birth certificates (or extracts)

If you were born overseas your overseas passport is fine in place of your birth certificate.

I would also need to see:

Divorce decree / Death certificate of past spouse if applicable.

Photo id

Legal change of name certificate if applicable.

Please note: Change of name by deed poll is not legal proof of change of name.

All documentation shown must be originals not photocopies or certified copies.

If these documents are not available at the 1st appointment, it's not a problem as long as I do sight them one/two weeks before the ceremony.

It is a legal requirement that The Notice Of Intended Marriage be lodged with your celebrant (1) one month before the wedding can take place.

A non-refundable booking fee/deposit of $150.00 is required to save the date this is part of the fee quoted not in addition.

NO dates can be saved without the booking fee /deposit being paid with the balance of the fee due 30 days before the ceremony date.
